

Q. What time should we check into our accommodation and by what time should we depart?

A. Your accommodation will be ready from 4pm on the day of your arrival and you are requested to leave by 10am on your departure day.

Q. Should I bring my own towels and/or bed linen?

A. You will find freshly laundered linen and tea towels in all properties. Please bring your own towels. Cot linen is not supplied..

Q. Are there any extras I could be charged for?

A. Electricity is charged for at the end of your holiday by a meter reading (the sauna uses approx 4 units in 30 minutes)

Q. Your web site is great but what information can I get about local leisure activities or attractions?

A. Every visitor to Rosecraddoc Manor is supplied with an information pack which contains details of places to visit and things to do.

Q. What do I do if I don't want to drive for the evening or need transportation?

A. There is a fast and reliable Taxi service that we recommend regularly to our customers.

Q. What sort of facilities are there for the disabled or wheelchair bound?

A. We have three properties that have been designed as wheelchair friendly, (namely River Views 1 and 2 & the River Bank properties) with easy access and freedom to move around. The Kitchens and Bathrooms are constructed with the disabled in mind.

Q. I or a member of my party are unwell or infirm, I'm worried for their health & safety while I'm on holiday.

A. There's no need to worry, although the Manor and grounds are apparently remote and isolated, there is a surgery and a newly built Hospital in nearby Liskeard which regularly deals with holidaymaker's health issues during the summer months.

Q. Is there a phone available for me to use?

A. Yes, there is a red public telephone box located within the courtyard of the Manor.

Q. What should I do if I have a problem with this web site?

A. All problems associated with this web site should be directed to the site administrator via the following email address admin@rosecraddocmanor.co.uk .
